

Internal auditor ISO 9001:2015

Training agenda:

1. Presentation of the audit method in accordance with ISO 19011
2. Interpretation of ISO 9001 requirements in the context of their auditing methods
3. Objectives and the audit program
4. Audit performing
5. Audit preparation - plan and list of audit questions
6. Audit activities performing
7. Findings and conclusions from the audit
8. Audit report
9. End of audit
10. Post-audit activities performing
11. Competences and assessment of auditors
12. Practical workshops

Target group:

- Internal auditors, candidates for internal auditors,
- Persons responsible for quality, quality department employees,
- Persons implementing quality systems,

Participant will learn:

- Correctly interpret the points of the ISO 19011 standard,
- Develop a system, process and product audit plan,
- Perform system, process and product audits,
- Interpret the requirements and prepare an audit report,
- Corrective actions planning,

Benefits for company:

- Gaining practical knowledge and skills in planning and supervising the internal audit program according to ISO 19011 guidelines,
- Opportunity to practice and practical aspects discussing of auditing in the automotive industry with a long-standing specialist-practitioner,
- Applied approach optimizing possibility in terms of internal audits effectiveness increasing in possibilities identifying of improving quality and losses eliminating resulting from system,
- Understanding best practices for various types of quality internal audits performing (system, product, process) according to the guidelines of ISO 9001,

Price:

For in-house trainings please get in touch with office.

Price include:

- Training participation
- Training materials
- Certificate

Duration:

- 2 days (each 7 hours)